Flight Attendant Drug and Alcohol Program

Sponsorship Form

We invite you to join us as a Sponsor for the 10th Annual Flight Attendant Drug and Alcohol Conference (FADAP) scheduled for August 18-20, 2020 at the Maritime Institute, Baltimore, MD. FADAP is a substance abuse prevention and early intervention program created under agreement with the Federal Aviation Administration. This conference will provide education on identifying, effectively intervening with and treating substance abuse within the flight attendant profession. Members of the flight attendant profession, other aviation workgroups, airline management, employee and member assistance professionals, and treatment programs will benefit from attendance at this conference.

FADAP would like to thank-you in advance for promoting your organization through this opportunity. Please note that limited sponsorship slots are available to enhance your organization's visibility during this conference:

For All Sponsorship Levels:

- Listing in Conference Manual
- Signage at Conference
- Recognition during the Conference
- Display Tables are 5 feet by 3 feet draped tables with 1 chair. There is no electrical outlet, unless requested 2 weeks in advance. Wireless is complimentary
